The Court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of: TIME SERVED.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $400, which is due immediately.

Defendant has paid the restitution amount in full pursuant to the stipulation filed on July 2, 2009.

The victim's recovery is limited to the amount of its loss and the defendant's liability for restitution ceases if and when the victims receive full restitution.

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a total fine of $3,000, which shall bear interest as provided by law.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Edgar Ayrapetyan, is hereby committed on Counts 1 through 4 of the 11-Count Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of TIME SERVED. This term consists of time served on each of Counts 1 through 4 of the 11-Count Indictment, which was concurrently.

The defendant is not required to report to the Probation Office while residing outside of the United States; however, within 72 hours of release from any custody or any reentry to the United States during the period of Court-ordered supervision, the defendant shall report for instructions to the United States Probation Office, located at the United States Court House, 312 North Spring Street, Room 600, Los Angeles, California 90012;
7. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant;
8. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
9. The defendant shall apply monies received from income tax refunds greater than $500, inheritance, judgements and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation;
10. The defendant shall not be employed by, affiliated with, own or control, or otherwise participate, directly or indirectly, in the conduct of the affairs of any financial institution insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation; and,
11. The defendant shall not be employed in any capacity wherein he has custody, control or management of his employer's funds.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

The Court dismisses remaining Counts Five through 11.

Defendant is advised of his appeal rights. The bond is exonerated.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
